

Regarding In-store testing of mobile phones

I need to be able to test a mobile phone before buying one to be sure that there is no inference with my cochlear implant and that the volume is strong enough.

I do not want to purchase a phone and sign a service contract only to find that I can't use it...and then have to pay a penalty for terminating the contract.

Thank you.
Sara B. Wilson